THE REQUEST FROM OUR MISSION PARTNER WITH "OPEN DOOR MINISTRIES"

We believe that God wants to do something great in Baltimore. This is a community where 47% of adults over 25 lack a high school diploma or GED.; where 24% of the households live on less than $10,000 annually and where 48% live on less than $25K. We're working in the poorest community in Maryland. Our question would be: where better would God work through His people? We're now ministering in a truly wonderful part of town with people and families who really need our message and our support. Please join us in this ministry.

PROJECT OBJECTIVE:

We're looking for inner-city minded folks who aren't afraid of hard work. Ours is not a ministry for the faint of heart. We need people of "actionable" faith who can visualize a broken-hearted Savior telling them to jump out of the boat. We need music teams to reach our east Baltimore community for Christ and to minister to them.
