THE REQUEST FROM OUR MISSION PARTNER IN GUATEMALA:

In our ministry of supporting and encouraging grassroots leaders in very hard places working with the least, last and lost of Guatemalan society. We have found the arts (especially music) as being the key to effective outreach and sustainable mission. We would love to have the chance to partner with a Global Missions Project in the coming year to serve with us in these places with incredible Guatemalan leaders.

Joel Van Dyke, D.Min., Director, Estrategia de Transformacion, www.estrategiadetransformacion.com

PROJECT OBJECTIVE:

Help support the work of the Estrategia de Transformacion (Strategy of Transformation) as it builds a missional community out of cutting edge grassroots leaders working with the least, last and the lost in Guatemala City. Come alongside of these leaders in the midst of their amazing ministries utilizing music as the radiant smile of God's grace in some very hard places. Jazz type music and/or contemporary/Latin music is best. We can use bands with vocalists or just instrumentalists.

PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS:

Ministry in 2-3 gang units of maximum security prisons with active gang members, open air concert in La Limonada (urban community where 60,000 live in a huge ditch), and concert for the "scavenger community" at the city dump. There will also be concerts/ministry opportunities in some schools, shopping malls and churches in Guatemala City.

COST:

The cost of this Project is based on transportation, accommodations, and can be divided into easy, multiple payments.
