REGIONAL MAKE-UP

The Navajo Reservation extends into the states of New Mexico, Arizona, and Utah, covering 27,000 square miles, 15 million acres. The Navajo land is larger than 10 states of the 50 states in the US. Navajo land is a desolate section of the Southwest with over 250,000 people. The unemployment is more than 35%. Over 80% still speak the complicated Navajo language.

PROJECT OBJECTIVE:

Our desire is to introduce Jesus Christ to the native Navajo people through Christian music. We need to introduce the young people to Christianity to break the spell of the traditions of the elderly and the “witch doctors”. There is a need to replace the tactics of early Mormon and Christian missionaries whose methods made the Navajo afraid of the “white man’s religion.” We want to mobilize Christian musicians to spread the word of Christ to the native Navajo people and help these Navajo realize that Christ died for them as well as the “white people” and to show them ways to develop their talents to improve their spiritual status.
