Therefore, go and make disciples of all the nations . . . Matthew 28:19

The Request from our Mission Partners

Ica is a coastal city that was hit by a devastating earthquake in August, 2007. Hundreds were killed and tens of thousands left homeless. Clean up and reconstruction has come a long way but the vast majority of Iqueños feel forgotten and isolated. We would like to provide for these needy people a cultural event they would not otherwise be privileged to enjoy. Hundreds of people came to know Christ through the provision of food and shelter after the quake and 9 new churches were begun in under-privileged communities. We would like to give these new believers an opportunity to see how God uses a variety of talents to serve Him by ministering to others.
