The Request from our Mission Partners

We minister to orphaned & abandoned children in Northern Thailand. The country is 99% Buddhist or other pagan religion. Also, the government and culture are completely entwined in the Buddhist "way of life" which is actually a path to eternal death. We love helping children who are at-risk, and creating small Christian family homes where the light of Christ can lead the children into faith. In Thailand, the people love music and entertainment, and it can provide a great open door to reach those who might never hear another clear presentation of the Gospel.

Project Objective

We want to share music and witness in various venues including universities and large vocational schools. There are also opportunities to perform and teach music to local worship leaders and perform "Street Concerts" at large street markets. Maintenance projects are available at several of the small orphan homes. This would include painting, cleaning, light fix-up, and yard or garden work. Note: Supplies will be provided.

Project Highlights

Minister to the orphans whom we are rescuing from poverty and the booming regional sex-trade

Use music to convey the love of Christ in a pagan culture

Entertain and encourage the small population of believers who are serving God in Thailand

Visit a "hill tribe" village where ancient culture and customs take you on a trip into the past

Visit one of the most beautiful areas in all of Asia; places of breathtaking natural beauty Chiang Mai is only a day-trip away from both Laos or Myanmar
